HIS HOUSE WAS HIS CASTLE.

At Morrisfield in Two Hours and Then Made a Conditional Surrender.
COLUMBIA, O., May 24.—Mayor Korb recently issued an order closing low variety theatres with bar attachments and where women were admitted. St. Morris, proprietor of a theatre of this class, was taking a benefit last night, and the police authorities believing that he was violating the order sent an officer to inspect the wine rooms and private boxes. The officer entered the private apartments of Mrs. Morris on the same floor and she made an attack on him.
She was joined by Morris a moment later, and the two, with some female friends, retired to the private apartments and Morris barricaded the door.

While the officers were making an effort to batter down the door, Morris fired two shots, which passed through the panels, but no one was injured. He declared that he would not be taken alive, and held the officers at bay for two hours with a threat that he would kill the first who entered.
Finally, however, he sent word to the police that he would surrender if they would not arrest the women. This stipulation was agreed to, but Mrs. Morris made such a vicious attack on the officers when they entered the room that she also was looked upon.

Negroes vs. Italians.
(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
BETTON, W. Va., May 24.—There is no end of trouble among the negroes and Italians who are employed in the construction of the West Virginia and Pittsburgh Railroad from Weston to Braxton county.
Yesterday morning about 5 o'clock a negro named Alex. Dunham got into an altercation with two Italians, and shot one in the head and the other in the hip. The former will die. After the shooting the negro held an angry mob of Italians at bay by the skillful handling of a Winchester rifle. Late in the evening, however, officers from the county next succeeded in arresting him, when the Italians took advantage of their opportunity and assailed the negro with knives and clubs. The negro is now in jail.

The Anti-Campbell Fight in Ohio.
(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
COLUMBIA, O., May 24.—Lawrence Bernard, a well-known Cincinnati politician, who has been in this city several days, claims that he has arranged it so that a number of city wards will elect an Anti-Campbell delegate to the State Convention, including the ward the Governor lives in.

SET AFIRE BY A CELLULOID BALL.

It Exploded in the Child's Hands and She Was Terribly Burned.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
BORDENTOWN, N. J., May 24.—Annie, the seven-year-old daughter of Nathan Atkinson, of Tuckertown, was so badly burned by a peculiar accident yesterday that her life is despaired of. While standing near the kitchen range drying her hands a celluloid ball which she had been playing with suddenly exploded and set fire to her clothing. In an instant she was enveloped in flames. Her screams brought her mother to her assistance, who put out the flames by wrapping a rag about her.

ROBBED OF HER DIAMONDS.

A Boston Lady Relieved of Her Jewels in a Train.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
ALLIANCE, O., May 24.—Mrs. Lewis J.
Jones, wife of a prominent manufacturer of Boston, who with her husband was a passenger on the Pennsylvania Company's Golden Gate special, which passed through here to-day, was robbed of $1,000 worth of diamonds on the train between Paro, N. Dak., and St.
Paul Wednesday night. On that evening a concert was being given in the observation car. Mr. and Mrs. Jones occupied a section in the rear sleeper and the other passengers were obliged to pass through their car to attend the concert.
Mrs. Jones was not feeling well and retired early. She placed her diamonds in her reticule and the next morning they were missing.
She suspects one of her fellow-passengers rather than any of the train hands.

Killed by Lightning.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
DANVILLE, Ill., May 24.—Isaac Lyons, a wealthy farmer, his hired man and two horses were struck by lightning while ploughing in a field, and Lyons was instantly killed.

DISCOVERS A NEW CURE.

In Trying to Stop Sneezing a Physician Breaks a Rib.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 24.—Dr. T. E.
Davis, a physician living here, was taken with a violent fit of sneezing this morning.
In his efforts to re-train the convulsions he broke a rib on his right side. The accident related to be so trivial as it is peculiar. The sneezing shock given by the fracture frightened away the sneezing fit.

Kidnapper Moore in Jail.

WATERLOO, May 24.—Edward Moore, who kidnaped his three-year-old son in this city on Thursday and took him from his home with his mother, into whose charge the court has placed him, was captured on Wolfe Island, in Canada, on St. Lawrence River, last night by a Watertown officer, and returned here to-day with the child. He is now in jail.

An Octogenarian Female Tramp.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
New Haven, May 24.—Probably the oldest female tramp in America was arrested here to-day. Her name is Catherine Warner. She is eighty-four years old and says that she has been a tramp for thirty years.
Her shaggy hair is matted and she carries the regulation stick and bundle. She came from Hartford yesterday, covering nearly forty miles. Her regular route is along the shore from Bridgeport to New London, then inland to the bridge and back to Bridgeport.
She fell into the hands of the police owing to an ill-advised use of stimulants.

Negroes Lynched by Negroes.

SHREVEPORT, La., May 24.—William and John Anderson, colored, who held the girl Jane Ware on the railroad track in Bossier Parish until the train ran over and killed her, were pursued by a posse of negroes and captured and hanged. They offered no explanation for their deed. The Andersons were bad characters.

Anniversary of the 101st Birthday.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
NEWARK, Conn., May 24.—Aunt Betsey Saunders celebrated her 101st birthday yesterday. Aunt Betsey is an inmate of the almshouse and the town authorities and her relatives gathered to commemorate the event. An elaborate dinner was set, the old lady sitting at the head of the table.
Mrs. Saunders has been blind for several years but in every other respect she is remarkably well preserved.
